John,

The agreement you are looking for is essentially the system operator agreement between GI and Macrovision titled "Licensing Agreement" with an effective date of June 4th, 1991.

Sections 4.1b and 4.1c speak to the $25K payment. These terms are on pg 3 of the agreement.

I understand that GI split Next Level off. I also understand via a press release dated Jan 7th, 1997 called "General Instruments Announces Strategic Restructuring Plan" and a May 28th, 1997 letter from Keith Zar, Assistant General Counsel at GI, that Next Level "will assume all of the obligations and liabilities of General Instruments and its subsidiaries under the Agreement prior to or at the closing of the Spin-Off Transaction."

If I understand correctly, you're saying that today Next Level is a wholly owned subsidiary of Motorola. With this information, are you saying that Next Level is responsible for the $25K payment? Or as the parent company, is MOT responsible?

If I need to engage Next Level, who should I contact.

Please advise.

Bob

Bob,

These boxes appear to have been sold by our Next Level affiliate. As you might now, Next Level is a wholly owned subsidiary of Motorola. It may have its own Macrovision license, for which the Horsham based law department is not the caretaker. Moreover, there appear to be a number of licenses that GI/Motorola have with Macrovision. I'm trying to isolate the license relevant to the sales to MTS. You would provide a short cut to my running around if you could identify and provide the agreement you think controls.

Hi John,

I hadn't heard back from you on this issue. Our quarter ends this month and all expectations on this side are that the check will be received before that time. Are we on track? Please let me know.

John,

Just confirming we are on track for the MTS Payment. Will there be any problems getting the check delivered by the middle of the month?

John,

Thank you for the clarification. I was unaware the issue of whether MTS Allstream was a MOT customer or not was still up in the air.

When it's confirmed with Tina Hampton or whomever the appropriate person might be, I'd appreciate any help you could provide getting the attached invoice paid.

Thank you.

Bob

I confirm that i will understand whether there is a need to pay. I can't speak for how soon the finance people can cut the check if there is a need.

John,

Perhaps this information will help you. MTS Allstream is a customer of Motorola's IP STB division. The Set-top box MTS purchased is the RG2200V. This can be verified by Tina Hampton who can be reached at thampton@motorola.com.
<<mailto:thampton@motorola.com>> .

Once verified please confirm the check is being processed and will be delivered within the next few weeks.

Let me know if I can offer further information.

Bob,

We'll need to talk. Information I have is that MTS-AllStream is not a Motorola customer. Do you have another name for them?

John,

If you could, when should I tell my accounting department to look for the $25,000 from the MTS -AllStream agreement?

John,

We've been working with our AP to get Motorola its revenue sharing check. Payments to date owed to Motorola are about $400. Where and to whose attention should we send the check?
